Dormitories

The Humanitas University has 20 apartments for the students. Each apartment consists of two double rooms with a bathroom and a kitchen. The apartments are located in the immediate vicinity of the University. The University also has eleven apartments for academic teachers.

Inclusion and accessibility

To facilitate studying for individuals with disabilities the university can offer the following technical solutions:

- large pull-out screens installed in the lecture halls to make it easier for the visually impaired to read the slides during the classes,
- for the hearing-impaired, a hearing aid system with an induction loop was installed in some of the classrooms as well as in the dean's office and reception,
- individuals with disabilities can use large monitors, magnifying glasses and voice recorders,
- a computer set (with a special mouse, armrests and a keyboard) in the reading room which enables people with cerebral palsy to work.

Additionally, students with motor disabilities and visual impairments are helped by an assistant.
